To the Family of the Late and Precious Patricia Blackmon. I am so sorry for your loss. I pray that now and in the days that come you will be encouraged and strengthened by the love that you shared with her as well as the love of the around you. There are some long days ahead of you BUT take comfort knowing that you are NEVER alone. Just like Abba was there for Patricia He shall surely be there for you. Rely on each other. This is the time to stand together and let the love that held you together thus far continue to lead you the rest of the way along this journey.

*My family covers you and we pray for your strength to stand together through these tough times.
Be encouraged!*
