

Mrs. Patricia Bullock

April 16, 1964 - April 21, 2022

Patricia Louise Key Bullock was born April 16th, 1964 in Boston, Massachusetts. She was the daughter of Gloria Louise Jenkins Key and Phillip Key. She went home to be with the Lord on April 21st, 2022, at 10:00 am surrounded by her family.

A Time to Love

Patricia was joined in Holy Matrimony to Tracey Bullock, Sr. This union was blessed with three children.

Biographical Sketch

Patricia was a member of Mt. Tabor Missionary Baptist Church. She attended West Columbus High School, and after graduating attended South Eastern Community College for two years. Patricia loved helping people which led to a career in the nursing field where she had worked for a few years before saying yes to the love of her life. After several years Patricia rekindled her passion and went back to nursing at Camp Pendleton Naval Hospital in California. Years later she obtained her teaching certification where she worked as a substitute teacher in Columbus County, and also Cumberland County, where she met and made friends with countless numbers of teachers, students, principals, the list goes on... For all those who met Patricia along the way, you will never forget her as she never forgot you.

Family

Patricia leaves to cherish her life, her husband Tracey Bullock, Sr. of Fayetteville, NC, and her three children, Tracey Bullock, Jr. of Rockland, California, Corinthia Davis (Kegan) of Fairfield, California, and Cierra Presentado of Alexandria, Virginia. She also leaves to cherish her life: one sister, Lucretia Key Reaves (Eric) of Junction City, Kansas; three brothers, Phillip Key (Edie) of Frederick, Maryland, Reginald Key (Tracie) of Tampa, Florida, and Kenneth Key (Gifty) of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; two grandchildren, Mario Mathias Presentado, and Hunter Alexander Davis, along with a host of friends and relatives

“ I remember first meeting Patty. When I saw her I was taken aback. She was absolutely stunning...to say the least. I felt I had to explain to her that I was not a lesbian, because my reaction to her beauty was not silent. I actually gasped. We both laughed and and became fast friends. Over time I began to see that her outward beauty was no match in comparison to her inward beauty. She is a lover of YHWH God, her husband, children and grandchildren and she spoke of them often with so much love and tenderness. Over time we became sisters in the faith and I will miss her. Patty fought this battle with so much faith in YHWH, courage, steadfastness and strength. I will not ever attest to the fact that she lost a battle, but rather that she gained her eternal victory. YHWH is who she lived for, along with Pastor Tracey, her children and grandchildren. She is now completely and totally healed in the presence of YHWH and full of LIFE for all eternity to give witness to.

I will miss you greatly my sister, and like you would say to me, "It's okay. I'm going to be okay. God is in control." To Pastor Tracey, the children, grandchildren and other family members, you have my deepest sympathy, but even more, you all have my sincere prayers....and that for a very long time. Farewell my sister....until we meet again. ❤️❤️❤️

“ I was shock to hear of the passing of Patty. We became close during the illness of her mom, Gloria. So to the family I can't began to tell you how to feel, but what I can tell you is that God is able to provide you with peace that surpasses all understanding even in times like this. Just lean on Him. Be encouraged.

“ Sister Patricia 'Patty' Bullock, beautiful, kind, meek, funny, passionate, caring, creative, supportive, strong and loving, was how I knew her. I could go on and on. My heart is heavy to know that it is so, you have left this home to go to your eternal home. You will be missed. I'm grateful to have known you, for there is no other woman like you. You were truly a servant that I could always take notes from. To Tracey, Cori, Cierra, Tracey Jr. and Keys Family, I pray God's comfort, peace, and love to overflow during this difficult time. Know that you all and friends are in my thoughts and prayers.
