

Mrs. Patricia Mae Jackson-Albea

February 26, 1948 - September 25, 2025

Patricia Mae Jackson Albea, born February 26, 1948 in Fayetteville, North Carolina, entered eternal rest surrounded by love and cherished memories. She was the beloved daughter of the late Willie James Henderson and the late Letha Mae King Henderson. She was preceded in death by her loving daughter, Perscilla Ann Albea, and her dear brother, Willie James Henderson, Jr.

Patricia (also called “Sister”) is fondly remembered and will be sorely missed by her devoted husband, Robert Albea, Jr., who was also her childhood friend for 14 years before their marriage of 56 years. What a testament to a lifetime of love and companionship! She is also survived by her devoted daughter, Anita Henderson of Raeford, NC; her grandchildren, Robert (Shareef) Henderson, Jalil Rhem, Chris Neal Henderson, and Nakia Henderson; and her great-grandchildren, Robert Henderson, Jr., Amara Henderson, Quaaliq Rhem, Naviah Henderson, and Ayden Long. Sisters-in-law include Carol Albea of Spring Lake, NC, Ila (Gregory) Hicks of Rice, VA, Bonnie Albea of Spring Lake, NC. She also leaves behind a host of loving family members and friends who will forever cherish her memory.

Patricia dedicated 25 years of service to L’Oréal USA Inc. in Piscataway, New Jersey, where she was known for her hard work, vibrant personality, and unwavering generosity. She never met a stranger and was always willing to open her heart and home to anyone in need.

She found joy in shopping, going to the movies (even if she occasionally dozed off), and attending church, where her spirit was uplifted and strengthened. Her faith was a cornerstone of her life, and her compassion touched everyone she encountered.

Patricia's legacy of love, faith, and kindness will continue to live on through her family and all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her presence will be deeply missed, but her spirit will remain a guiding light in the hearts of many.
