

Mrs. Patricia McNair McKeithan

December 9, 1973 - January 3, 2024

Mrs. Patricia McNair McKeithan was born to the late Mr. Jonathan McNair and the late Mrs. Mary Allen McNair on December 9, 1973. Patricia transitioned from this life to everlasting rest on Wednesday, January 3, 2024, at Scotland Maynor Hospice in Laurinburg, North Carolina. Patricia's education began at Peterson Elementary, followed by Red Springs Middle and Red Springs High School, where she graduated. On February 11, 1994, she married Frank McKeithan. Patricia adored her family and enjoyed shopping and beauty. She was kind-hearted and was willing to assist anyone in need. She leaves to cherish her memories: her husband of 29 years, Frank McKeithan, of the home; two sons: Frankie and Brandon McKeithan, of the home; and two stepdaughters: Erricka O'Bryant (Rashad) of Red Springs, North Carolina, and Tabitha McLaughlin of Greensboro, North Carolina, to whom she was like mother. One step-son: Travis McLaughlin of Fayetteville, North Carolina. One brother: John McNair of Red Springs, North Carolina; one sister: Sandra D. Canty of Charlotte, North Carolina; nine stepchildren, two special nieces, one special cousin: Pam of Laurinburg, North Carolina; and a large number of cousins and friends.

“ Ask a little girl I can remember getting make overs and Mary Kay visiting the house so we can place an order. You never treated me anything less than anything than a daughter as if I official belong to you. You will be one of my regrets of not spending more time with you . I love you please hug my mom for me your daughter Erricka
