“ The beautiful memories that you have will help to carry the family through this time of sorrow. This will serve to keep her alive. Jesus sated this truth at Luke 20:38 about his Father: " He is a God not of the dead, but of the living, for they are all living to Him." He could say that because he knew that those remembered by God will be restored to life. So the hope of seeing out dead loved ones again is given to us by the one who not only is the Giver of life but also the Restorer of life, God. So your family can believe the promise found at Isaiah 26:19 and John 11:25. Please accept my condolences.

“ No doubt, many friends and family members will miss Ms. Pitts. Just as Jesus awakened his friend Lazarus from sleeping in death, he can do the same for Ms. Pitts. (John 11:11-14) Until that time, continue to cherish the memories created over the years.

“ In times like these we need a savior and our condolences on the lost of your love one. I had the opportunity to meet your mother on Fort Bragg at the Normandy house where she and my mother worked together for years. She was such a beautiful person inside and out and she will surely be missed by many she served. Please except our heartfelt sympathy in your time bereavement. Louise Leach & Family
