

Ms. Peggy Jean Patrick

July 21, 1951 - February 7, 2025

Peggy Patrick, born on July 21, 1951, in Autryville, North Carolina, to Charlie N. Melvin and Frances L. Johnson, peacefully departed this life on February 7th, 2025 leaving behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. As the youngest of nine siblings, Peggy was a beloved sister, daughter, mother and wife whose spirit touched the lives of everyone around her.

Peggy was the proud mother of one daughter, Monica Melvin, who has preceded her in death. For a time, Peggy and Monica lived in New York, where they created lasting memories before returning to their roots in North Carolina.

A woman of diverse passions, Peggy discovered joy in gardening, where she cultivated vibrant blooms, fresh vegetables, and delicious fruits. Her culinary skills were unparalleled, with cherished recipes stored in her memory, never once faltering in their execution. Additionally, she relished playing her favorite online games, often finding delight in things that brought her peace.

Peggy is survived by her five adoring grandchildren: Christopher Melvin, Lakreshia Melvin-Fields, James Hazelton, Antwan Little, and Antonio Little. She also leaves behind six great-grandchildren: Chris Jr, Calvin Jr, Camille, Na'Ziyah, Calee, and Calleen. Her two eldest sister Doris Johnson (Arthur), Florence Rogers (Freddie); and a host of family & friends who will carry forward her love and warmth.

Peggy Patrick will be deeply missed but her spirit will forever live on in the hearts of those she touched.
