“ What a sweet spirit young woman, what a dear friend. Didn't need to see or speak every day, but when we were in one another's presence, it was like we hung out every day. I will miss you my friend!!! Heaven gained a jewel!!!

“ I will always remember my dear friend “Jean”. We moved next door to her family when I was 7 years old and she was 6. We grew up together and I felt like family. It was Pam, Jean and Brenda. Over the years we always kept in touch and when we would see each other and catch back up with one another, it was like we had never missed a beat. I admired her courage and her faith and the love she had for her family. Jean had a special place in my heart and will be truly missed.
