

Mrs. Porcha Yolanda McMillan

September 11, 1975 - February 18, 2020

Porcha Yolanda McMillan was born on September 11, 1975, to James and Annette Blue in Four Oaks, North Carolina, and entered eternal life on February 18, 2020. She graduated from Robert G. Cole High School in San Antonio, Texas. Porcha continued her formal education at the illustrious North Carolina Central University in Durham, North Carolina, where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and a Master's in Public Administration. As a graduate student at North Carolina Central University, Porcha served as an international ambassador for Public Health in Accra, Ghana. In this capacity, she affected public health policy and impacted the lives of many impoverished women. Her efforts, along with those of her team, laid the foundation for change to existing policy and improved the women's lives by providing access to quality-controlled healthcare. Porcha was a devoted wife and mother. Porcha's and John's beautiful love story began on July 8, 2000, as they entered a sacred covenant in the presence of God, family, and friends. From their union, Porcha birthed the loves of her life, Micaiah John and Micah Jahmai. Porcha lived for her husband and children; she was the epitome of a nurturing, doting wife and mother. Porcha worked for the Department of Defense for more than 20 years as a Provider of Education and Relations Representative. Porcha was a fellow for the Center for Racial Equity in Education under the auspices of the North Carolina Equity Fellowship. She touched the lives of countless people and lived her life in service to humanity. Porcha was a voice for the voiceless and an advocate for the marginalized. As a policy-maker and champion for equity and access, Porcha served in the following capacities: executive board member of the North Carolina Caucus of Black School Board Members; advisory board member for Cumberland County Community in Schools; member of the Cumberland County Board of Education, representing District 2; member of the Cumberland County Pathways for Prosperity Core Leadership Team; board of directors for the North Carolina Parent Teacher Association; member of the Council of Urban Boards of Education; member of the Cumberland County Schools Association of Teacher Assistants; member of the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development; and member of the Fayetteville affiliate of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Porcha was an agent of change. Her works speak for themselves, and her legacy will transcend the walls of time. Rays of her sunshine, deposited by her words of encouragement, acts of kindness, enveloping hugs, and radiant smile accented by unforgettable dimples, will warm the hearts of all who knew and loved her in this life and the next. Porcha is survived by her loving husband, John E. McMillan, her cherished sons, Micaiah John and Micah Jahmai, and her sister, Janell Shaffer. She was preceded in death by her brother, Gerald Blue. Porcha is also survived by a host of uncles, aunts, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins, other family, friends, and acquaintances.

“ Porcha, from the first day I met you and your family, you called me Auntie and that meant so much to me. I will miss your Godly, sweet and kind spirit and how you just accepted us as part of your family. I know you are one of Gods' Angels. I know you loved your family and friends but God loved you best. I will always remember how you loved my cooking and the laughs were shared at the gym. God only knows how my heart hurts and how hard it is to hold back the tears. I do know that weeping will endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning. Death came quietly and gave you gentle sleep. You will always be my Sweet Niece from another family. I will live on our memories and I will cherish the fact that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Take your rest now baby, you have earned it. I will live from day to day knowing that one day we will meet again

For as much of the tireless effort you applied to our community, youth and people here....it appears the Lord is in greater need of your services.
