“ I will never forget you my dear friend. I am just devastated to have heard about your passing. I will always remember the times we shared, memories we made. To those who knew Prince, he would give anyone the shirt off his back. He took me in when I had no where to go at one very hard point in my life and kept me safe. He was so creative and could fix just about anything. I love you Unc. I'm really going to miss you. I'm struggling to wrap my head around this that I'll never see you again in this lifetime.
