“ We offer our sincere condolences and prayers to our family. Quinton made the transition that we too must make. We all must live our lives so that we are ready and not found unprepared. There are so many fond memories of conversations during times spent with Quinton. May we all cherish our memories of him knowing that he is now in a better place. May we be reminded to love others more while we have that opportunity. Let us serve the LORD with all of our hearts, minds, and souls. Quinton has fought his battle here on earth and has now gone to rest with JESUS and to hear our FATHER say “Well done” May GOD bring comfort to us all as we grieve the loss of our loved one. We shall again see Quinton in that blessed day.
