“ I'm gonna miss Rae so much, she was a dear friend and neighbor, she used to sometimes come by my home and we would either sit out in my garage, talk and watch TV or in the kitchen where she would critic me on something that I was cooking lol, one thing for sure is that she was never out of words for conversation, there was always something to talk about... Rae had a big heart and was always willing to do something for other people, always. How big her heart is was evident in her willingness to foster and care for animals through animal rescue that she was a part of... I thought she was doing too much but to her I know it was never enough. I am so glad that God put Rae in my life, Every time I drive by her house on my way home I am reminded of her and her smile. I love you dear friend may you rest in peace~~
