

Ms. Raquel Denise Langer

August 29, 1968 - December 16, 2025

Raquel Denise Langer (Hancock), wife of the late Joseph Langer and daughter of Stephanie Murray and the late Clifford Hancock, was born on August 29, 1968 in Seattle, Washington. She gained her heavenly wings on Tuesday, December 16, 2025.

She graduated from Nathan Hale High School and went on to attend the Seattle Art Institute where she started to design and merchandise the windows for department stores. From there, she would start to take classes to become a nurse at Auburn Regional Medical Center.

In 2008, she became a faithful member of Mt. Rainier Chapter No. 1, Order of the Eastern Star, State of Washington and Jurisdiction, where she earned the title of becoming a Past Matron. She was also a member of Beni Hassan Court No. 45, Oasis of Seattle, Desert of Washington under the A.E.A.O.N.M.S umbrella, where she served as the Recordress for many years and helped with community services.

After her husband's passing, she moved to Savannah, GA and later to Fayetteville, NC where she would become a participant and eventually a recipient in the kidney transplant program at the Atrium Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, NC. Due to further complications and medical issues, she had to return to dialysis within less than a year.

Raquel Langer, the oldest of three daughters, is survived by her mother, Stephanie Murray, her two sisters, Deidra Strickland (Lynn) and Ye' Vette Redd (Sherman). her two nieces Erica Luckett-Prince (Chidi) and Ja' Kai Thomas, her two nephews Eric Gordon Jr and Xavier Scott, her great-niece Evalynn Prince and a host of nieces and nephews of the Wyatt and King families.
