

Reginald Thompson

January 23, 1958 - July 22, 2021

Reginald Alexander Thompson was born January 23, 1958, to the late James H. Thompson Sr. and Mamie L. Mercer Thompson.

Reginald Alexander Thompson was born and raised in Newark, N.J. He went to Martin Luther King Elementary, afterwards he went to Barringer High School

Reginald A. Thompson was employed by Comibino Hat Wear in which he was the supervisor of the factory for 35 years of his life. In 2004. He moved to Fayetteville, North Carolina. He worked at Grace Land Manor and medically retired in 2017.

Reggie was inspired to go back to school to get his diploma. He was the first of many to attend Stepping Stone High School at New Salem International Ministries and went on to receive his High School Diploma graduating 26 June 2009 under the leadership of Bishop Eddie Hightower. Reginald enjoyed singing in the Choir while attending New Salem. While there, he served in whatever capacity needed.

In August 2019 Reginald was baptized and united with Mark Rowden Ministry International, Inc. He was faithful in serving in the ministry. He contributed significantly to the global ministries in Malawi Africa and Liberia West Africa. His contributions seem small to him not realizing because of him entire villages were blessed.

Reginald Alexander Thompson leaves to mourn daughter, Crystal Latta, three grandchildren, E'Nyla Latta, Alayah Latta and Zion Rich. Three sisters, Hattie

R Mace, Evelyn Thompson, Renee Thompson. Life Partner Nellie Upchurch.
A host of Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, and Friends.
Reginald is joining three siblings in death, the late Fred Battle Jr., James H
Thompson Jr. and Ava Thompson Dorsey.
