“ Hey Yall:

I still remember going to a football game in which Collinwood played John Marshall and Bruiser was starring for the Railroaders.

Robert and Clarence were just two little boys running around, getting in the way.

Anyway, Collinwood won and the twins helped celebrate although I'm not sure if they actually knew what it was that they were celebrating.

So, time has passed and we remember watching them develop into men which, at the end of the day, is what we all hoped for.

Be strong and remember the good times.
