January 11, 1942 - December 1, 2021

Robert Lane McCall was born a fraternal twin (Sarah) on January 11, 1942, to Leander McCall, Sr. and Sueneal McAllister McCall, in Lumberton, NC.

Robert accepted Christ at an early age. He grew up in Mount Sinai Holiness Church in Lumberton.

Robert (aka) Bobby was educated in the Lumberton, NC Public School System. However, Roberts's first love was baseball. He played briefly with the Negro League until an injury prevented him from continuing a career in professional baseball.

Robert moved to Upper Marlboro, MD in the 60's where he began working with his father Leander, in construction. Robert developed a passion for this career when he got the opportunity to work on major highway projects throughout the Metropolitan area. Robert worked in construction until the early 2000's.

Robert met Mary Deyampert in 1999. The connection was so strong and within two years he moved back to NC to validate his love and commitment to her.

On May 21, 2005, after a long courtship, Robert and Mary were united in marriage. Robert gained two bonus children, Bridget and Elmer (Bo) Lorenzo Chisholm. They affectionately called him Papa Robert.

Robert would later join First Baptist Church of Fayetteville, NC, his wife's church, where they worshipped together.

Robert departed his earthy home on December 1, 2021. Preceding him in death were his parents Leander and Sueneal; siblings: Andrew McCall, Sr., Carl McCall, Sarah McCall Jackson, Leander McCall, Jr. and EArchie McCall; son, Charles Williams, Sr., and grandson Keith Williams.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Ms. Mary and family. We send our deepest condolences. Mr. McCall was a great and caring neighbor. We moved into the neighborhood across the street from the McCall's 13 years ago and the night we moved in; Mr. McCall fell ill. Ms. Mary called her neighbor Keith Sterling to help, and Keith came to our house to get my husband Curtis Johnson to also help. They are both Physician Assistants and helped to stabilize Mr. McCall until the ambulance came. So, that was our introduction to the neighborhood and Mr. McCall was forever grateful. We are grateful for having such great neighbors. We will miss him. Ms. Mary, let us know if you ever need anything. See you soon.

With great sympathy, Curtis and Milicia Johnson

“ My sincerest condolences to the family. When I moved into the neighborhood Mr Robert drove down and introduced himself. So glad I had the opportunity to met such a kind soul. Scripture tells us show ourselves friendly and Mr Robert did exactly that. I will miss seeing him sitting on the porch and waving as I pass by. Praying that God gives you all a peace that surpasses all understanding during this difficult time 🙏❤️🙏
