was introduced to Christ at an early age as a member of Johnson Chapel Methodist AME church. in Alma

NC. As an adult Roger accepted Christ as his personal savior. He loved talking about the goodness of the lord. After retirement he loved his hobbies of cooking, listening to music, playing the piano, singing, diagnosing auto repairs, dressing well, smelling good and TV SHOPPING!

And let's not forget about how much he loved his family!

After serving his country Roger resided in New Jersey and started Jones Upholstery with his wife Rebeca Jones and their four children. However, fate was cruel and the marriage did not survive. Attempting to reestablish himself, Roger moved to Philadelphia where he established Jones Auto Repair and met his loving partner Debbie Campbell, which produced one child.
