“ It’s hard to find words big enough for this loss. Rogerick was gentle, good to the core, and always striving to do his best — yet what I remember most is how he treated people. When I landed in the ER, he was simply there in the waiting room. No fanfare, no text first, just showing up. That was who he was: goodness in action, time freely given, compassion without limits. That is how I will remember him: not just for what he achieved but for how he arrived for people, time after time. To his beloved mother your guidance and love shaped him into the remarkable man he became. His goodness, thoughtfulness, and drive for excellence reflected the beautiful heart you nurtured. I pray that God’s love surrounds you in this time of grief. As Psalm 34:18 says, “The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” May you feel His presence near you, holding you tenderly as you mourn your precious son.

“ Bro. Currie will surely be missed. I served as Claflin University Assistant Residential Manager at SRC-South while Rogerick was a student. I remember fondly our many talks concerning future endeavors and how motivated he was toward his pursuits and thereby activating others with his drive and determination. His life will always light a path for all of us who had the privilege to have known Rogerick.

“ I was one of the many very fortunate people who had the pleasure of befriending Rogerick at Lowe’s. He was one of the first people I met and he made such a positive impact in my life from day one. He had an absolutely electric energy, enthusiasm, and smile that lit up every conversation, and any day that I saw him and got a handshake/hug things just seemed to be a little bit better. Thanks for making the world around you a brighter and better place Rogerick!

“ Words cannot express the impact you had on me and so many others in this world. Always greeted me with a hug and the best smile. There are a handful of people we meet in our lives that have a profound and lifelong impact on us, you were one of them for me. I will never ever forget you and do my best to live a positive life and see the world through Rogerick's eyes. You were a great soul, spirit and friend. This world wont be the same without you. Love and miss you brother. Rest well.

“ I had the absolute pleasure of working with Rogerick at Lowe's since he first started (we started around the same time). I was even more fortunate to begin working with him so closely for multiple years. The more we worked together the closer we got in realizing how similar we were - even down to our birthday being the same. Rogerick was a genuine light in every room he walked in and everyone that ever met him understood just how amazing he was. This loss is deeply felt across all of Lowe's and the world is worse for having lost him. I'm praying for his family and friends as I know it's been hard to walk the halls of the Lowe's campus knowing I won't run into him.

“ I had the privilege of meeting and working with Rogerick during our time at Lowe’s. He was a radiant presence, always the brightest and most positive light in the room. Rogerick had a unique way of making everyone feel seen and cared for, and he consistently reminded us of the importance of taking care of ourselves.

His energy was rare and unforgettable, a constant reminder to be grateful for the lives we live. That spirit left a lasting impact on all whose lives he touched, simply by being his authentic self.

Rogerick will be deeply missed. Thank you, Rogerick, for sharing your incredible gift with the world. My heartfelt prayers are with his family, and I extend my deepest condolences.
