

Mr. Ronnie Mitchell Colvin

February 17, 1957 - September 5, 2023

THERE IS A TIME TO BE BORN

Rodney Mitchell Colvin, of Fayetteville, NC entered into eternal rest on September 5, 2023 at Highland House Nursing Home. He was born to the late Henry M. Colvin, Sr. and the late Lena McNeill Colvin on February 17, 1957.

THERE IS A TIME TO BE EDUCATED

Ronnie graduated from EE Smith Senior High School in 1975 and later attended Fayetteville State University.

THERE IS A TIME TO WORK

As a young man, he enjoyed working with his father, Henry M. Colvin, Sr., founder of Colvin Construction Company and Colvin Funeral Home. Over the years, Ronnie became a master carpenter and enjoyed working with his hands in construction.

THERE IS A TIME TO LOVE

He was known and loved for his free spirit, sense of humor and he will be greatly missed by all who were privileged to know him.

THERE IS A TIME TO SAY FAREWELL

He leaves to cherish his memory: his two children: his daughter, Hellena Malloy Melvin (Maurice); his son, Rodney Malloy (Stephanie) all of Charlotte, NC, the mother of his children, Deborah Malloy of Fayetteville, NC; three grandchildren, Russell Jones, Jamoree Robinson-Malloy and Kingsley King; three sisters, Sheila Singleton (Warren) of Clayton, NC, Bonnie Colvin and Regina Tucker all of Fayetteville, NC; stepfather, Julius Tucker of Fayetteville,

NC; two brothers, Mitch Colvin and Michael Colvin all of Fayetteville, NC; stepmother, Elva Colvin of Fayetteville, NC; two aunts, Mary Colvin Williams and Martha Ray both of Fayetteville, NC; a lifelong friend since the age of 4 years old, Wilbert Williams, Jr. of Fayetteville, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.
