“ To Chauncey, LaSheryl and Brianna Stokes, Marquita Stokes and Domonique Bell, Enoch and LaGretta Butler and to the family and friends of the late Ms. Ruth Stokes:

On behalf of First Lady Marva, the officers and members of Christ Fellowship Church, together, we express our sincere condolences in the loss of your mother, grandmother, sister and loved one, Mrs. Ruth Stokes.

We pray that her legacy and fond memories will draw you closer to God and to those who truly care for you; your family and friends. May the God of all comfort and the Father of mercies sustain and keep you during this time of bereavement.

In the days and weeks to come, may you experience the love; comfort and peace that God intends to provide you. We love you with the love of the Lord Jesus Christ. Feel free to call on us for any reason. Know that we will continue to pray for strength for you and the family.

With God's love, comfort and peace,

Walter
