“ *To the Hammond's family
May you know that others like myself feel your grief because it reminds us that death is part of our existence at this time. Since death was not a part of the human family at first we can have the assurance that time will exist again here in earth. That is a promise made by our living Heavenly Father. When your family feels better please take the time to read 1 Cor. 15:20-26. We can have absolute trust in that because this is a promise from the One who can not and does not lie. (1 Titus 1:2).*
