Preceding her in death was her parents; Thomas Hester and Shirley King. Sandra was educated in the Robeson County School System and was employed with Pratt and Whitney Aircraft in Connecticut. She moved back home to where she spent her life while attending various churches in the area. Sandra received Christ while living in Greenbrier by repenting according to Romans 10:9, and was baptized at Sandy Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Lumberton, at a young age.

She leaves to cherish precious memories her children: Cheryl Hester and Wayne Richardson. Her sisters: Brenda White (Peter), Debra Hester and Annette Thompson. One brother, Rev. Thomas Dudley (Mary).
