“ Sorry fr the lost of your loved one, Times like this can be very difficult to deal with. At times, you may feel like there is no one to turn to. You may feel like no one understand your pain. But there is one we can turn to that can help us through all our trails. Yes GOD can help you during this difficult time. Constant Prayer and he will show you the way. 2Cor 1:3,4

“ My friendship with Sara began when we were kids burning tobacco together. After I moved away from Evergreen, I didn't get to see her very often but I kept up with her through her mother. When I moved back to Evergreen in 2015, Sara was a big help to me. My mother died and it was Sarah who helped me when I was getting furniture out of the house so I could move my things in. She and her friend Shorty helped me clean out my attic too. Later Sara had medical issues that required trips to Wilmington. She would tell me there was no way she could drive in Wilmington so I would just have to take her. Off we would go. We were ready to head to Wilmington on July 19th for spinal surgery.

I am going to miss Sara so much. She always said we were like sisters because we looked out for each other. If she needed something she knew where to come. I know she is in heaven now and is no longer in pain but I surely will miss hearing the toot of her horn when she drove by the house, as well as her telling me some funny story about something happening to her. Rest in peace, Sister.
