To my family and friends

Thank you for your Goodness, Mercy, and Grace

39 Days

Returning to Fayetteville, NC, on February 15, 2025, became a 39-day journey of love, faith, grace, forgiveness, and connection for me. Over those 39 days, my family and the community came together to support us and our beloved sister, Sharon, during her illness, her hospice care, and her Homecoming. Her light brought us closer to one another. Even in sorrow, there was grace and love that reminded us of the power of family and friends.

Goodness.

The 39-day journey was a profound gift—a chance to bond deeply with my siblings, connect and reconnect with relatives, rediscover friends, and experience the greatness of God. I am beyond grateful.

Mercy.

While my sister's passing has left an irreplaceable void, her love and light continue to guide us all. As I prepare to return to my home away from home (Newark, CA), I am thankful for our 39 days of togetherness, the kindness of others, and the strength found in faith. Life is precious, and I feel blessed to have been surrounded by your love.

Grace.

It's God's will.

Thank you 🧡

“ Sharon and I were we both worked. One of things that we bonded over was Gospel Music. I loved her sense of humor and she kept me laughing. She touched my heart. We lost a great spirit. I know that she is singing and laughing with the others. I will miss you my dear Sharon

“ Sharon is actually my brother Deltrick's Aunt. So that's what I called her. As I grew up, and on punishment she always got me out of trouble with my Mom and Dad. The whole family is so loving. It was always a good cookout and good music when they all came around. I will miss Aunt Sharon with her funny sense of humor and wonderful personality. She loved us as we were her own children. I'll never forget the fun memories we had as a kid growing up. Love you Auntie, you and my Mom are together again. 🕊️✨🕊️✨
