“ *A Rose for Sharon.
We are all here for just a little while: no man knows the day or the hour, they will be called to leave .
But I know the one that has all power.
Cry if you must, grieve when it helps, but I want to tell you that I am at rest with the best of the best.
My thorns are gone, my petals brand new. I am with the ROSE OF SHARON, watching over you.
I know you not will forget me, and I ask that your grieving not be long. I know this hard but please be strong.
Remember my smile and my laughter.
My life here on earth has completed the final chapter.
I am in my real home now, where I will live happily ever after.*

To Sharon's family, to her memory. I will miss you my cousin, But in my heart I hold the memories of laughing with you, giggling as only little girls do. Your cousin, and friend Janice Alston
