

Ms. Sheauna Deyavian Nyasia Johnson

June 25, 2005 - September 8, 2020

Sheauna Deyavian Nyasia Johnson, daughter of Kenya Johnson and Willie Dean Johnson Jr., was born on June 25, 2005 in Lumberton, North Carolina. Kenya and Junior were blessed to be the mother and father of “She She” for 15 years but on September 8, 2020, God needed an angel. He told her “Come on home sweet child, it’s time to rest because the battle is not yours.” You showed people what true love really meant and how to give it. She She was loved by many and brought so much love, joy, and laughter into our lives. No matter how your day was going, if you saw She She, her smile brought you happiness. Through all that she endured she was still able to smile. She She touched our hearts each and everyday in each and every way. She will be missed but will live on through us, through videos, pictures, and memories and she will never be forgotten. The time we shared with her we cherished and never took it for granted because we knew she loved us with every moment spent with her.

Sheauna has earned her wings. God says hurt no more, run and play child for those are the things you could not do on earth. She is smiling down on you Kenya, watching over you saying, “Momma don’t shed a tear because I am doing things I could never do while on earth.”

Preceding her in death: two uncles, Clifton Antonio Bethea and Bobby Domonic Bethea; maternal great grandparents, Emma Washington, Florence Johnson, and Archie Green; paternal grandparents, Willie Dean Johnson Sr. and Mary Buie.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her mother, Kenya Johnson (Kevin Brooks); her father, Willie Dean Johnson Jr.; one brother, Najeh Johnson; grandmother, Patricia Bethea (James-Winston) of Fayetteville, NC; grandfather, Keith Johnson (Wanda) of Lumberton, NC; five aunts, Likicha Drake (Damian) of Fayetteville, NC, Kiara Johnson of Lumberton, NC, Tracy Sinclair of Fayetteville, NC, Jennifer Rouse (Robert) of Red Springs, NC, and Velveta Dupree; one uncle, Darius Johnson of Chapel Hill, NC; a special father figure, Vincent Perry; and a host of relatives and friends.
