

Mrs. Shirley Holmes DeMary

September 12, 1956 - October 20, 2023

Shirley Elizabeth Holmes DeMary, daughter of the late Sarah Mae Holmes and Carl Robinson, was born September 12, 1956 at Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville, NC. She departed this earthly life on Friday, October 20, 2023.

Shirley received her elementary and secondary education from Cumberland County schools. She graduated from South View High School. She would further her education and graduate with a Bachelors and Masters in Education from Fayetteville State University.

Shirley was a National Board-certified educator and taught Kindergarten through 6th grade. She also taught on weekends with the Fayetteville State Pre-College program. Education was truly her passion. She was a devoted teacher for over 30 years. Her teaching career encompassed providing education in 5 states. She loved her “babies” (family, friends, & students). She was a firm believer that knowledge is power!

Despite her illness her faith in God was strong. To know her truly was to love her. She was a special earthly angel and a true blessing to so many people. She honored God through her service to her family, community, and church. Her acts of faith inspired others to remain faithful to God’s will.

Surviving to cherish her precious memories are her two daughters, Sonya Holmes Mitchell (James) of Raleigh, NC and Danielle DeMary Pollard (Brandon) of Charlotte, NC; her grandchildren – Alexis McDonald, Antoinyla Brickhouse, and Stewart McDonald; her bonus daughter, Yasmine Holmes, her brother – Randy Holmes; her sisters – Sarah Holmes Nsiah, Joetta King, Michelle Crooks, Veronica Robinson, Janice Patricia Robinson Mathis. She leaves to cherish memories a host of nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.

Shirley was predeceased by her sister - Linda Faye Carter and brothers – James Holmes, Darrett Robinson and Carl Maxie Robinson.
