

Retired SSG Harry Lawrence Jr.

April 13, 1952 - December 21, 2024

Harry Lawrence, Jr. was born April 13, 1952 (Easter Sunday) hence the nickname Bunny to Mary and Harry Lawrence.

Harry was raised in Freeport/Roosevelt, New York. He developed a love for art and drew many paintings and a mural. He spent 20 years in the United States Army. Most of those years in Germany, a country he grew to love.

He met his lovely wife Martha L. Christian in Lakeview, New York. They were married on May 5, 1992, in Hempstead, New York and one year later moved to Fort Riley, Kansas which seemed like a different world to Martha (New York vs Kansas).

After two years in Kansas, they moved to Neu Ulm, Germany. His new bride was a little apprehensive about the move, since she had never left the United States.

His favorite hobbies were painting and fishing. He loved cooking, especially grilling.

Preceding him in death were his father, Harry Lawrence; stepfather, Span Brockington; mother, Mary Brockington and brother, Ellis Lawrence.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Martha Lawrence; his sisters, Hannah Hill (Bill) of Babylon, New York and Tina Lovell (Carlos) of Corpus Christi, Texas; brother, Roscoe Lawrence (Patty) of Delaware; nieces, Leah Patrick (Kerry), Chelsea, Vanessa, Kimberly Lawrence, Tiffany Lawrence, Chrissy Lovell, C. J. Lovell and Melanie James; nephew, Omarr Green (Jessica); sister-in-law, Diane Green; great nephews, Logan and Christian; and great niece, Ahyana Green and a host of other relatives and friends.
