

Ms. Sylvia Elizabeth Burch

October 26, 1951 - December 15, 2025

Syliva Elizebeth Burch was a beloved daughter, friend, and colleague who passed away peacefully on December 15th, 2025. Born at St. Agnes Hospital in Raleigh, North Carolina on October 26, 1951, to the to the late Clarice Burch Roberts and the late Lousie Henry Roberts. Syliva grew up with a bright spirit and a love for learning. She graduated from Western High School in Georgetown, Washington, D.C. and continued her education at Morganton State University in Baltimore, Maryland, where she pursued her dreams in Pathology and Audiology with determination and grace. She also was a member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

After relocating to Fayetteville, Nc Sylivia dedicated more than 20 years of her professional life to Primetime of Cumberland County as the assistant director where she was admired for her hard work, kindness and unwavering commitment. Her colleagues remember her as a source of encouragement and positivity, always ready to lend a helping hand.

Beyond her career, Sylivia cherished time with family and friends, creating memories filled with laughter and love, and joy. Her warmth and generosity touched everyone who knew her, leaving a permanent scar on our hearts.

Sylivia greatest joy was her family. She is survived by her loving children, Kendra Michelle Burch of Fayetteville, Nc and Kenneth Michael "Kirby" Burch (Cleshia Breece) of Fayetteville, Nc and her cherished grandchildren: Uneek Ja'Nieva Burch of Greenville, North Carolina, Jaylen McRae of Fayetteville, Nc Ryane and Rylei Burch of Fayetteville, Nc, Jinasha Fisher of Fayetteville, Nc. She also leaves behind her dear siblings; Earlyn Baldwin of Valrico, Fl, Benjamin Chaplin of Raleigh, Nc, George (Debra) Burch of Cary, Nc and Gregory (Cathy) Burch of Alexandria, Va. A nephew Frederick (Sonya) Thompson of Fayetteville, Nc. Also, a special friend Ella Hill brought comfort and love to her life.
