“ Man sis I'll love you forever and always, this just doesn't even feel right for me to even write for you. I keep going in and out of reality because this is too hard to grasp that you're gone. Just one more laughter, a hug, a joke or even the simple talks. I want to receive the FaceTime calls from you again. I just you to wake up for me please

“ I truly enjoyed watching Tay show so much support for her grandmother and watching her participate in our church activities. A most vivid memory is her mastering the bbq grill during a vacation Bible School outing at White Lake. Rest In Peace "Tay". Thanks for your service.

“ Tay, I am so incredibly sorry for your loss. Tanasia was a beautiful soul and a wonderful daughter. I'll always remember the times she, Lj, and Deonta shared growing up off Strickland Bridge Rd—those memories will never be forgotten. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers during this heartbreaking time. Love you all Kelli, LJ and Brandon
