“ In times like these, no matter how hard it may be, we are ever prayerful and trusting that God can do anything but fail or make a mistake. God did not fail or make a mistake in bringing Taylin into all of our lives. God did not fail or make a mistake in giving us memories to remember him by as an expression of our love for him. God did not fail or make a mistake in deciding to bring Taylin, one of His sons, back home to Him. And, God did not fail or make a mistake in leaving us here to celebrate Taylin's life by continuing to show and share the love that made him so special to all of us. We will, as we continue to trust and believe in God, see Taylin again because God can do anything but fail or make a mistake.

*Written in love that never fails,
