

Mr. Teddy Bobbitt

August 10, 1961 - May 1, 2021

Teddy D. Bobbitt was born on August 10, 1961 to the late Nathaniel Bobbitt and Burnetha Bobbitt in Fayetteville, North Carolina and departed his life on earth on May 1, 2021.

When growing up, Teddy was the jokester of his siblings- he enjoyed playing pranks on them and fighting and wrestling with his brothers. He loved playing sports, especially football, with his siblings, watching wrestling, reading and drawing. After graduating from Fayetteville Technical Community College, Teddy joined the United States Army and the Army Reserves and faithfully served as a Motor pool Technician and Parachute Rigger for his country.

Teddy had one of the most humorous personalities in our family. He loved telling jokes, playful teasing with others and shooting the breeze with his nephews. Teddy had many talents; he was definitely a jack of all trades. He enjoyed helping his family and friends with fixing up their homes or working on their cars; and barbecuing with family and friends. Most recently, he relished working at Fayetteville Landscaping & Lawn Care since he looked working in the yard and gardening, especially growing cucumbers and watermelons. Everyone who knew Teddy knew that his favorite pastime was fishing, especially with his favorite fishing partner, his nephew/his “boy” Kesan.

Teddy was blessed with a large and loving family. He was preceded in death by his maternal and paternal grandparents; his father, Nathaniel Bobbitt; his mother, Burnetha Bobbitt; his brothers, William P. Johnson and Freeman T. Bobbitt; and his sister, Francis Bobbitt. He leaves to cherish his memories his long-term girlfriend from Eastover, NC, Vale Hoffman; two brothers from Fayetteville, NC, Elbridge Johnson (Sharon Johnson) and Hampton ‘BJ’ Johnson, and a nephew who was raised like a brother, Montoya Meeks; one extended brother from Stedman, NC, Derrick McKinnon (Juanita McKinnon); two sisters from Fayetteville, NC, Evangeline ‘Tan’ Meeks and Vera Scott (Walter Scott Sr.); his dear friend from Fayetteville, NC, Bones; and a hosts of nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

We will always carry Teddy's memory in our hearts!
