“ Ms. Teresa was always so nice to me & she used to spoil me rotten with those different colored peppermints when I was younger. She will be missed for sure. Nobody could wear a bang hairstyle or clothes like her. Ever.

“ To the children and family, it is with deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolences that I am sending prayers during this time of bereavement. My love for my family is deep and fir those that know me please let me know if I can speak a word of encouragement, continue to pray for you or be of service to you. Teresa was always our little babydoll to her cousin Nellie and all of us Nellie’s children. Please be blessed and safe and know that God is always with you all.
