

Deacon Thaddeus Ray McCallum

December 17, 1956 - December 21, 2019

Thaddeus “Thad” Ray McCallum was born December 17, 1956 to the late Gladys and Chester McCallum in Rowland, North Carolina. He departed this life peacefully at his home on December 21, 2019.

Thad was educated in the Public Schools of Robeson County and graduated from Rowland High School in 1975. Upon graduation, Thad relocated to Charlotte, North Carolina where he worked for numerous years with the City of Charlotte.

Thad confessed Christ at an early age and joined Mt. Tabor Missionary Baptist Church. Thad loved his church and proudly served as a custodian for many years until his health declined. Thad became an ordained deacon on November 19, 2000.

Thad was a friend to all who came in contact with him. No one was a stranger in his home; his desire was to make everyone feel special who entered his doors. Thad will be greatly missed in the community.

Thad was preceded in death by his mother and father, Gladys and Chester McCallum, and five brothers: Chester Jr., Glenn, Connie, Harvey and Leandrew.

Those left to cherish his most fond memories are: three sisters, Belinda McCallum, Barbara (George) Baker and Sandra Lewis, all of Rowland, North Carolina; one brother, Ronald McCallum of Rowland, North Carolina; an adopted brother, James (Connie) of Rowland, North Carolina; two aunts, Jackie Artis and Patricia Stewart, both of Baltimore, Maryland; one uncle, Dennis (Hazel) Davis of Greensboro, North Carolina; a live-in tenant, Lisa Bethea of the home; close friends, Willie Johnson, Mitchell McCallum, Bobby Robinson, Ebay Campbell, John David Braswell, William Fields, Phillip Callahan, Charles Wayne Washington and many more; a special cousin, Billy Ray Davis; a special friend, Brenda Smith, and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
