

Ms. Theresa Mae Monroe

July 17, 1949 - March 16, 2024

I can do all things through Christ who strengthen me.

Phil 4:13

On March 16th at 2:46 am at Duke Medical Center, God plucked one of his most precious flowers from his earthly garden, Sis Theresa Monroe.

Theresea was born on July 17, 1949, to the late Maggie Dixon and the late Roland Judd. She also had a special relationship with her Stepfather, the late Mr. Fred Dixon.

At an early age, Theresa accepted Christ and found Beauty Spot Missionary Baptist Church, where she worked faithfully on the Usher Board for 60 years. She sang with the Young Adult Choir which is now the Greater Voices of Praise.

Theresea attended Scurlock School in Raeford, NC. Then she went on to graduate from Anne Chestnut High School in 1967. After graduation, Theresa joined the Women's Army Corps (WAC) in 1971. While working, she raised three children as her own: Maurice Monroe (deceased), Natifa Campbell and Sasha Ross. She retired in 2001, after 30 years.

Although gone from this present world, she will never be forgotten and her memories, faithfulness, generosity, and love for her family and church will live on.

She leaves to cherish her memory: one sister, Shirley Bak (Clemens) of Ackworth, GA, two brothers, Thomas Monroe, James Monroe, all of Fayetteville, NC; one aunt, Gertrude Morrison; special friend, James Miles; and several uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
