Thank you Judith for sharing this memory. Yes, Tomee was so very proud of Trinitee. He also has a second daughter Jazzalynn. He was an excellent hands-on father to both daughters.

“ Tommy and I were neighbors in Cliffridge. We were also teammates on the "1989 Undefeated Champions" Eagles t-ball team coached by his father. I moved away from Robeson County in 1993, but to this day I still remember playing with Tommy. I can't forget how much he laughed and smiled. He always thought everything was funny back then. It was impossible to be upset around him.

Thank you Scott for sharing this memory. I remember that team well. You were such a great bunch of boys. Our whole family enjoyed the games, practices, playing at our house, etc. Tomee still had that trophy and picture.

“ Susan,

I did not know James. But, I do know you and the Blackmon family. My heart goes out to each one of you. I can not express how sadden that I am for all of you.

May our Lord comfort you and your family with His peace in these difficult days. My prayers are with all of you.

*Love,
Linda Gavin Thompson*
