

Mr. Thomas Woodrow Johnson Jr.

April 9, 1965 - June 27, 2012

Thomas W. Johnson Jr., Elvis tribute artist, known as “Elvis” and “Tom Storm” to his friends and fans but “Woody” to his family, departed this life for his heavenly home suddenly on Wednesday, June 27, 2012. He was born April 9, 1965, in Smithfield. He is survived by his father, Thomas W. Johnson Sr.; his mother, Ann Pearce Johnson; sister, Paula Leigh Johnson; niece, Maileigh; and nephew, Aubry, all of Hope Mills; and paternal grandmother, Annie Braswell of Smithfield. He leaves behind his fiancée, Beth Skipper of Fayetteville; and aunts, uncles and many cousins.

Special people who greatly touched his life are Big Al Pearce of Little River, S.C., and his best friend, Derek Fox of Troutman.

A graveside service is to be held Monday, July 9, 2012, in Hills of the Neuse Memory Gardens in Smithfield, U.S. 301 South, at 11 a.m.
