

Mr. Thomas "Smokey" McKee

July 29, 1956 - January 10, 2024

Mr. Thomas "Smokey" McKee was born July 29, 1956 to the late Harry Leggett and Love Smith. He departed this life on January 10, 2024. Attending the Public Schools of Robeson County, he graduated from Lumberton Senior High School, Class of '74.

Smokey (as he was known too many) was a known and active member of First Baptist church until the decline of his health. He worked in the funeral business since he was 12 years old, retiring in 2022.

Smokey was a stranger to no one; he flashed that smile to everyone he'd encounter. He enjoyed watching sporting events and firing up the grill.

Proceeding him in death is his father, Harry Leggett; his mother, Love Smith; his wife, Linda J. Whitted-Mckee and a very special aunt, Mrs. Macie Rowdy. He leaves to cherish his memory; a very special friend that he spent his final years with, Tabatha Mitchell; one son Andra McKee (Kita) of Lumberton, NC and two daughters, Chief Petty Officer Leslie McKee, USN of San Deigo, CA; Whitney Mckee of Lumberton, NC. Seven grandchildren: AJ, Trinity, Kyran, Dreylon, Kaydon, Jameah and Darius; one great grandson; six brothers, eight sisters, two step-daughters and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and many friends.

“ The natural side of me hurts that you've left us, but the spiritual side rejoices that you are absent from this body of pain and suffering and in the Presence of your Lord! I'll miss all the good times we had working together: all the laughs, the junk talking, and always the fellowship over some goooooood food! Sleep well my brother....we'll see you in the morning!
