

Mr. Thor Tyson McMorries

June 23, 1972 - March 7, 2025

Thor Tyson McMorries was the second born son to Elaine Perry and the late Rhoderick McMorries in New York City, New York on June 23, 1973.

Tyson moved to Fayetteville, North Carolina at the tender age of seven. Tyson attended and graduated from E. E. Smith High School, 1987-1990. While there he showed his excellent skills playing basketball; always having his eyes on the goal of becoming one of the NBA Greats. Tyson also studied at Winston-Salem State University, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Along the path of life Tyson became a father to a beautiful baby girl, Tashee McMorries, and they moved back to Fayetteville, North Carolina. He put his social skills to assisting people in buying cars; which lead him to a career at Honda of Fayetteville where he was employed for 15 years. During his time at Honda, he and the late Betty Lizette welcomed Tyson Jase McMorries into the world.

Tyson loved to dance and cracking jokes with his brother Gene. They would playfully bully their 'Lil sister Mia Perry, known as PO.

He was preceded in death by his loving brother, Rhoderick Eugene McMorries, his special friend and mother of his son, Betty Lezette, and a host of other close relatives.

Tyson leaves to mourn, his mother: Elaine Perry; son: TJ McMorries; daughter: Tashee McMorries; sister: Mia Perry (Vea); two aunts: Teresa McMorries and Jennifer Thomas (George Mathis Jr.); two uncles: Michael and Darryl McMorries; and a host of cousins, other relatives and very dear friends.

“ Those days out on the lot, and talking about your passion for basketball and the Golden State warriors, your joy over having a son, to pass that passion on to, the way you loved that Isuzu Axiom, that kept breaking down, to just getting your new number 3 weeks ago and then you were gone, rest easy my guy....

“ My deepest condolences to the McMorries family and friends of Tyson.

May you find comfort in the love of those around you and strength in the cherished memories you shared. Tyson's kindness, warmth, and presence will be deeply missed but never forgotten. Ive known Tyson for over 22 years when I was a young Soldier. He was the coolest neighbor and friend. When I retired from the Army I worked at Bryan Honda with him for a year as well.

*I wish you all peace and healing during this difficult time. RIP
Brother*

*With heartfelt sympathy,

“ This is such awkward feeling to be saying see you later to you my guy. we have had dad to dad and man to man conversation many times threw our auto career. When I first moved from Va to Nc, started at Bryan Honda you said “what up son, where you from” we hit it off right then, you a real one my guy
Much Love and Respect 100 REST IN PARADISE, Tyson!!
