“ It is still so unreal because every since I can remember there being a me there was you two laughing just being our cute lovable selves. Sometimes our crying selves because it was spanking time. My favorite memory was when we we allowed to cross the street and go to Druid Hill Park as long as we held each other hands and looked both ways before we crossed the street. We never went past the softball field cause we actually believed that the grown ups could see us from 3 blocks if we didn't obey instructions. LOL
