

Ms. Toni Patricia Andrews

August 17, 1944 - February 10, 2023

Toni Patricia Andrews, age 78, passed on Friday, February 10, 2023, surrounded by her family at Cape Fear Hospital in Fayetteville, NC. She was born on August 17, 1944, to James and Priscilla Lee in Pittsburgh, PA. Along with her nine siblings, she was raised in the Pittsburgh area and graduated from Westinghouse High School in Homewood, PA, in 1962. Shortly afterwards, she married Richard Andrews and moved to Pasadena, CA, along with the entirety of her family.

Ms. Andrews moved to several states throughout her years – California, Texas, Georgia, Virginia, and finally settling in North Carolina for her retirement years. During that time, she was blessed with five children – Richard, Cynthia, James, Cheryl, and Crystal. Her gift was the ability to share her life with those who needed a mother’s heart, and she was always surrounded by the people whose lives she touched. Whether that was as a supervisor at Busch Gardens, a cafeteria manager in the Newport News school system, or neighborhood kids and their moms who needed a hug from “Ms. Toni,” the fullness of her heart was always on full display. The walls of her apartment told the story of the pride she took in her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren as she surrounded herself by dozens of pictures throughout. Each one told a story, and she was happy to share those stories with joy and laughter. In the end, “Mommy” was right where she wanted to be – surrounded by her family.

Ms. Andrews is survived by three sisters, Betty Strodes, Audrey Jones, Ellen Ligons; one brother, Jon Lee; two sons and a daughter-in-law, Richard and Venida Andrews, and James Andrews; three daughters, Cynthia Washington, Cheryl Andrews, and Crystal Andrews; 13 grandchildren, and 11 great grandchildren.
