Tray Provoid, son of Charlene McIntosh and Tracy Provoid I, was born on September 20, 1991, at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. He departed this life unexpectedly on February 25, 2025, at the home of his mother.

Tray was a lifelong athlete and sports fanatic. He spent most of his life playing various sports, including basketball and football. He was a green belt in Taekwondo, played soccer, basketball, and most notably football.

During his senior high school year at Seventy-First, Tray along with the rest of his team, won the State Football Championship. This crowning achievement won him a scholarship to North Carolina Central University.

Alongside sports, Tray also enjoyed drawing, cooking, and would have numerous cooking competitions with his family where he was declared the winner. Throughout his life, Tray made numerous friends with his funny jokes and quick jabs, and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Tray is survived by his parents, his sister Brianca, his paternal Grandmother Wanda Neely, and the love of his life, Sabora Frazier. As well as numerous Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins.
