“ Tyrone was one of my students in Foods I I . He was a special kid who liked to make everyone laugh . He always gave me a hug and would say, I know you love me Mrs. Purcell. " I would tell him yes but he still had to be quiet in class . He was one of the best male cake decorators I have taught . I will pray for his family he will not be forgotten .

“ Tyrone King! You almost always had to say the name together and not just "Tyrone", it felt like the "King" was just too important to leave off. When we first met at the age of 10, Denize and I was walking by their house, where he and Ernest was sitting on the porch yelling out to us asking if we were new to the neighborhood, we knew then there were going to be fun times in Fox Fire. Playing with him and Ernest on the latest Atari games, playing football in our back yard with other neighborhood kids and getting wet on the homemade slip-n-slide at Chris and Kim's house. So much fun! All through Junior High at Westover, when we began to drift into our separate lives, he would always yell out "Hey Leo!" in the halls and I would return "Hey Leo!", since we shared birthdays by one day in July. It was like he wanted me to know that we still had a connection and he had not forgotten. Kind, funny and reserved is how I will remember him. I send my condolences to the King family for their loss.

“ Deepest condolences to Ernest and the rest of Tyrone's family and friends. I have only fond memories of Tyrone. From the 7th grade on to graduation. I hadn't made my way back to Fayetteville often, but I always remember good experiences with Tyrone in school and on the football field. You will be truly missed, Tookie!
