

Mr. Tyshauen Maurice Tally

September 9, 1992 - November 12, 2020

With our hearts heavy we announce the passing of Tyshauen Maurice Tally also known as “Scooter.”

On November 12, 2020, Tyshauen passed along side his fiancée, Lunell K. Lewis. Tyshauen was born in Lancaster, Pennsylvania on a beautiful sunny day. The sun was so bright I knew he was special. Tyshauen never cried when he was baby, not when he was hungry, not when it was time for shots at doctor’s office, we didn’t know when to feed him, because he never cried. But when he started talking at one, he never stopped. He attended Terry Sanford High School.

Tyshauen is survived by: his children, Deandre Tally, Deonte Tally, Desmond Tally and Leo Tally; mother, Angela Marie Speights; father, Leroy Stepheney; sister, Laquerisha Syedia Speights; brothers, Tavon Anthony Speights; brother, Jaylen Latrell Speights; sister, Staci Redd; his grandparents, niece and nephews.

Tyshauen was very kindhearted young man. If you had a problem, he tried to find a solution, even if he didn’t have one. No one could ever make him angry. He did not get angry and he did not have hate for anyone, because he was at peace with himself. He touched everyone he encountered. All Tyshauen wanted to do is be with Lunell and the kids. Tyshauen and Lunell had a love like no other relationship that we have witnessed. Our Bonnie and Clyde.

“ I will remember Tyshaun for his smiles and laughter. I would pick him and his brothers up on Sundays for church. We had some great times just talking, eating meal's. I am going to miss him, but rest on my friend. May GOD continue to bless the family. Kenneth Pittman
