

Prophetess Ulayer Lee Moore

August 11, 1952 - January 15, 2025

Prophetess Ulayer L. Moore 72 of Lumberton, North Carolina, was born in Portsmouth, Virginia to the late Ulayton Moore and Zular Roberts Moore. She is preceded in death by her parents, her brothers, George E. and Arnell Junior Moore. Prophetess Ulayer L. Moore departed this life January 14, 2025 at her home in Lumberton, North Carolina. Prophetess Moore spent her early years in Portsmouth, Virginia. She attended public schools in Lumberton and Rowland, North Carolina. She was active in the school choir and was a part of the Cotillion Ball at Southside High School where she learned poise and etiquette which helped to prepare her for college and the world at Rowland Southside High School.

Prophetess Ulayer Moore was a powerful and true woman of God. She received Christ at an early age, her Christian walk lead her to become a devoted member of the Greater Higher Ground Pentecostal Holiness Church of Deliverance in Lumberton, North Carolina. Prophetess Moore was known for her dedication and devotion to her apostle and church family. Prophetess Moore was known for her boldness and speaking her mind. She said what she meant and meant what she said and people respected that. She was always on time and wanted things done in decency and in order.

Prophetess Moore worked with children at the Discovery Center in Lumberton where she left a lasting impression on her coworkers and the visitors. She enjoyed working with children and worked until her health declined. She loved going to church, sewing and cooking in this order.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Towanda J. Gaddy of the home; four sisters Sandra Moore-Baker, Fort Washington, Maryland, Shelia Moore of the home, Renia Robinson, (Clarence) Charlotte, North Carolina and Valerie McRae, Charlotte, North Carolina and one brother, James L. Moore of the home. Four nieces: Dana Boampong, Trynee Robinson, Valencia Moore, Jessica Sumner; three nephews: Christopher Moore, John Christopher Baker, James Moore, Jr., and ten nieces and nephews. Two aunts: Eldora Hurtt of Baltimore, Maryland and Margaret Pittman of Fairmont, North Carolina

“ A beautiful memory that we will cherish is the first time we met Ulayer. It was summer about 30 years ago and we had come to Lumberton for a Moore family gathering. And, it just so happened that it was also Ulayer’s birthday. When asked what she wanted to do for her birthday, Ulayer remarked that she wanted to go on a boat ride on the river. So, Andrew and I did just that! And while the sights and sounds of people having fun surrounded us, we just remember Ulayer’s smile. That smile that made her nose wiggle and her eyes light up. That smile that stretched from ear to ear and sent her eyebrows soaring to the moon. That smile that made life long friends, slayed hearts and glued family together. Although we mourn the loss of our dear cousin Ulayer, we will forever remember and cherish her smile. In loving sympathy- Andrew and Iris Moore.
