“Velma and I are choir sisters singing in the SIG (Senior Inspirational Gospel) mass choir of our church. I will truly miss her. Though small in stature, she had a big heart and was so giving. We became "acquainted" during a choir rehearsal some years ago. I commented on a beautiful pair of silver earrings she was wearing. She removed them from her ears and said, "Here, they are yours." I told her no and she wouldn't have it. I had to take them she said. I finally did and we both reached out to hug each other. I wear them with the love she gave. We both dealt with health issues and talked often sharing our concerns and prayers. She is a sweet memory I will not forget. Her presence is missed. I know she is now resting in His peace. Rest now beautiful spirit.

“ Velma and I worked together at Cumberland Mills. She was a great friend and a humble, wonderful person. I moved away some years ago but have gotten updates on Velma from other friends. My heart grieves with the family. I pray God's comfort for you all in the days to come.
