

Mrs. Volder Ametha Gittens

August 21, 1953 - January 26, 2021

Volder Ametha (Harding) Gittens was born to Letitia and Joseph Harding in Uitvlugt, a beautiful small town in Guyana, South America, where she was a bright student and athlete.

Volder eventually came to the United States and met her husband, Paul A. Gittens, in Brooklyn, New York. On December 25, 1971, they wed and had three beautiful children Tumeka, Natosha, and Paul.

Volder lived a fulfilling life as an educator, mentor, mother, wife, daughter and friend. In her past time, she loved decorating, gardening, creating and time with her family.

Volder believed in treating everyone with kindness and love. She knew not a stranger.

She is survived by her husband, her mother, her two children, three grandchildren and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.

“ Mrs. Volder Gittens (Mom) was the wind beneath many wings. In my greatest hours of need she was there. A voice of reason...she was encouraging, faithful, and full of wisdom. Her love and concern will live forever because she sowed so much of her love and concern into others. I am very fortunate to have Tumeka as my sister because through her I was able to feel and experience the love and care that Mrs. Volder gave. I will forever be gracious because God allowed me to be touched by one of his angels that walked on Earth. That angel was Volder and she was a part of my life for 22 years and now she will ALWAYS be a part of heart and loving memories.

“ I met Mrs Gittens through her her children. From the beginning she was always so kind and welcome and made me feel like family. I will always cherish her memory and her amazing family. May God bless the Gittens family during their time of mourning and comfort them with the grace and love that only He can provide.

“ Volda: Words cannot explain the sorrow of your passing. The Alleyne family, Wishart, #MT2GFT9Princess, Linda, Patsy and Heinsley are still in awe. Remembering the many weekends spent on St. John's place with you Paul AKA (Andy) and the little Gittens in the tummy. The great times we had will never be forgotten. The love our family shared with you will forever be remembered. I will miss our monthly conversations even though we were miles apart, the love have always been strong. My dear friend, I will certainly miss those conversations. Andy, Tumeka, Paul, Lexy G and Mrs, Harding I pray your strength in this time of grief, but remember Volda is now in the hands of the God she so faithfully served, she is now reunited with Natasha, her dad and many family and friends. Sit In Peace my friend. Praying for the strength of your family as they remember you with love.
