

Ms Wanda Allen

December 26, 1957 - July 10, 2019

Wanda Annette Allen was born on December 26, 1957 in Richmond, VA to the late Plummer H. Allen and Bertha B. Allen. She departed this life on July 10, 2019 at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center in Fayetteville, NC. She was the third born of four children. She was preceded in death by her brother, Eugene K. Taylor.

Wanda received her high school diploma from John Marshall High School in 1976. She attended Virginia Commonwealth University for two years where she studied Accounting. On October 16, 1992, she gave birth to her cherished son, Eric G. Allen, with beloved friend Glover "Sonny" Cardwell in Richmond, VA.

Wanda lived in Miami, FL for ten years where she worked at Storer Communications, Inc. Upon her return home to Richmond she began working as an Accountant at Industrial Commodities, Inc., where she was employed for 29 years.

Wanda lived her life carefree, with a love for good people, good food, and good times. She was often the life of the party and made her presence known with a loud "OOO-WEE." She was an uncomplicated person who loved the simple things in life. Family and friends could always catch Wanda playing a good game of Scrabble or spades; watching re-run episodes of Law & Order and Perry Mason; and inviting herself over for breakfast, lunch, or dinner. She had a sweet personality and could always be counted on for encouragement and support with no questions asked.

Wanda spent her last months of life in Fayetteville, NC with her oldest sister Patricia, who devoted time, prayer and love to her. She found joy in the family around her, peace in her surroundings, and accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior.

To cherish her life Wanda leaves behind her son, Eric G. Allen; two granddaughters Jayla N. Allen and Halo R. Allen (due 09/17/19); three siblings: Harold P. Allen (Beverly), Patricia A.
