

Ms Wender L. McNeill

February 24, 1951 - February 25, 2024

Wender Lewos McNeill was born on February 24, 1951 to Odom and Maggie Jane Richardson.

She departed this life on February 25, 2024. She was one of the nine children (5 girls and 4 boys) born to this union.

Wender (Sabrina as she was known by many of her friends and relatives) was an extremely kind and generous person. She donated to the care of the homeless annually by providing food, socks, blankets, personal hygiene items, or whatever she could to help. She loved doing crafts, singing, and serving the Father. She often sang songs of praise to the Lord, to her son (Timothy), and on occasion to family. She loved to give. Whenever you would visit her, you would always leave with a gift of food, clothes, purses, shoes, or something she had created.

From her youth, she enjoyed sewing and was quite the seamstress.

She leaves behind 3 children— Alonzo (Melody) Richardson of South Carolina, Wendy (Hayden)

Smith of North Carolina, and Timothy McNeill of North Carolina; 9

grandchildren— Desiree

Tillman, Matthew (Dominique) Robinson, Nathaniel Richardson, Jasmine Smith, Brittney Smith, Quincey Smith, Hayden Smith Jr., and Brandan Funderburk; and 4 great-grandchildren—Madysen Robinson, Kalani Smith, Jaiceon Henderson, and Ayden Briscoe; one surviving sister - Kathy Pridgen of North Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

ME

“ I miss you Auntie more than words will ever be able to express. You was my only shoulder to cry on, You understood me and my issues, You loved me like a mother even though you was my Aunt. Thank you for giving me Timmy to shower him with this same love that you showed me. I will forever love you and may you rest in eternal peace! Love, Melissa
