Wesley was the first person to integrate our school in 1966, in Cotton Plant, Arkansas. He walked in, well dressed, his shoulders held back, a twinkle in his eye, and a smile on his face. He was funny, he interacted, he was well mannered, and I didn't know it then, but he must have been scared. If he was, he didn't show it. My mother was a WAC during the Korean War. Her records burned up in St Louis. She always wanted a military funeral. A couple of years ago I was telling him that, and he told me the military was trying to get those records together. Because of Wesley, I am now going to be able to give my mother the going away she wanted. She will be cremated and buried in North Little Rock. Pat, he loved you so much and he loved and was so proud of all his relatives. I thank God for his friendship. God bless you all so much!
