“ My grandfather, William C. Black, was a man of wisdom, gentleness, self-discipline and love. He was a father to the fatherless who loved his children and grandchildren. I learned so much from observing him over the years. What has impacted me most was how he loved and honored my grandmother, even after she departed this earth. He loved her deeply and showed me what truly loving someone is. May their hearts meet again.

William C. Black was a good man. A man of integrity and kindness. I will miss him immensely. I thank God for his many years of life and may his gentle spirit Rest In Peace.

“ As I sit and reflect on your rich selfless life it warms my heart and brings tears of joy to me knowing that you fought a good fight and finished your race strong. Because of you, I am so grateful to have had the opportunity to be a friend and the best neighbor ever. You represented Jeremiah 17:7-8 “but blessed is the one who trust in the Lord, whose confidence is in him. They are like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit.” You left a world better off, because of who you were and how you Loved. Your fruits will live forever.

Rest In Peace

“ *From our heart
To our friend and father figure, whom we love very much. We laughed together, we travel together, we shared wonderful stories together. We cherished your guidance and wisdom. You were our mentor and learned alot from you. There wasn't anything you were afraid to share with us. Our friend God is smiling for he is so blessed to have you in heaven and know Thelma is waiting with open arms to greet you. You will be truly missed. We promised to carry you in our hearts forever. The Williams Family

“ My uncle Curtis was my father's youngest brother. He was a good man, kind and gentle. He spent many years serving in the United States Air Force. Although we were separated by many miles, the times we were together were always joyful. He was the last of Dad's siblings and his death closes the book on a remarkable family from Americus, Georgia. Rest in peace.
